MYOPIA MANAGEMENT DAY - LAUSANNE

Myopia Management Day - Lausanne, will be held on February 29th at the Aquatis Hotel in Lausanne and hosted by EurOK - the only European organization devoted to myopia control and orthokeratology

In an interactional and attractive scientific environment, the event will cover myopia prevention, managing and interventions, with special focus on practical issues.

It represents the broad aim of EurOK to provide education in this particular field, which actually represents the primary care of both optometry and ophthalmology.

The speakers are internationally well know in the field of myopia management: Marino Formenti, President of EurOK and IAOMC, and Jaime Paune, European Coordinator of the IAOMC accreditation committee.

The event is also a prerequisite for access to the IACMM., myopia management certification released by the IAOMC.

AQUATIS HOTEL - LAUSANNE

More than a hotel, the AQUATIS platform is both a leisure area and an environmental education centre.

In addition to the 143 comfortable rooms, there is a restaurant, a relaxation area with fitness and spa as well as a family area including a games room for young and old and a kitchenette.

The hotel is defined as a real oasis combining leisure, education and pedagogy.

Ideally located in the heights of Lausanne, Aquatis Hotel is at the exit of the A9 motorway, at the crossroads of the north/south axis. Very easily accessible by public transport, it is located on the Vennes metro station which connects it to the city centre and the lakeside in a few minutes.
